

Beyond Words: From theory to practice- making the Law of Attraction work for you

16 October 2010, 10am - 5pm

Dublin Ireland

The power of sound meets the power of feeling good in this leading edge workshop which will inspire and improve the quality of your life.

Presenting for the first time in Ireland, Law of Attraction workshop facilitator/author Michael James and Kirtan leader Nikki Slade come together for this special event that goes “beyond words”.

Have you read the books, watched films like “The Secret”- yet still struggling to apply the Law of Attraction in your life? Or perhaps you want to take your own experience to the next level and enjoy your life even more?

This powerful workshop will provide the answers to these questions and more.

Exploring some of the most powerful Law of Attraction processes from the Abraham-Hicks material (the source material behind the film “The Secret”), Michael James will share insights and real-life testimonials directly from the popular weekly groups he facilitates in London; Cutting through the jargon, you will realise for yourself the simplicity of creating your reality and the ease of life in the flow.

Nikki Slade will lead us on a journey into what is possible when we resonate the Law of Attraction through connecting to our Source energy through the power of sound vibration. She will lead us in call-and-response chanting from the heart through the devotional practice of Kirtan. The ancient Sanskrit syllables of these glorious and uplifting chants connect us directly to our own inner self and therefore Source energy.

As we open to this experience a wonderful space is revealed where we can hear our own inner voice and become present to our dreams.

Through chanting /voice and free movement Nikki will create a safe and fun space to explore ‘resonating your word as yourself’ and in this place, we naturally realize our dreams (‘In the beginning was the word’).

Nikki’s most recent work has been very much inspired by Abraham-Hicks and the Law of Attraction and she is delighted to be collaborating with Michael James in this united exploration.
